An Excellent Place To Buy . . .

I have been accused on numerous occasions of being a stronger booster for Wisconsin Shorthorns than for those of some other sections. Perhaps I am guilty but, if so, it has been only because of the observation that buyers seem to get more for their money in Wisconsin than in a lot of other sections. Despite the fact that this state is not packed with herds, I have found that you can see more good Shorthorns in a two day drive in Wisconsin than in most any other state.

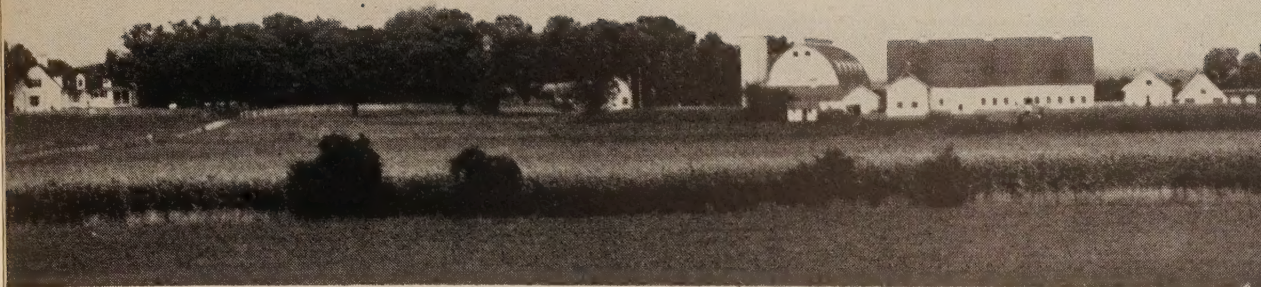

The surplus from four of the best Wisconsin herds is being offered in this sale. A study of this catalog will reveal the fact that the cattle to be sold are backed by exceptionally strong Scotch ancestry and that each animal is a son or a daughter of a top sire. The sale is to be held at "The Hickories", the beautiful farm owned by Dr. W. A. Taylor, and managed by Don James. It is a treat to visit this farm at any time but June will be the ideal month for such a trip. And, with 43 grand young cattle listed for sale, this will be an event that should be on your "must attend" list.

HAL LONGLEY
of The Shorthorn World.
